that he will communicate by email as the process moves forward. He also ~~stated~~ feels the need to look at graduate programs and would like the university to continue to explore new ideas. He reported that as he spoke, Brenda Baker was working with the Board of Trustees to plan the investiture of the president in keeping with the rich history of the institution. The event could be early in the fall semester since Norton Auditorium will be off line in the fall for renovations. He stated that he wanted the event to be about the institution and not about him and that it was the ~~hope~~ to have the event funded from donors. He also thanked President Infanger for his friendship during his interview process.

Vice-President Thornell thanked the new senators for their willingness to serve. He stated that if enrollment numbers hold and the budget funding continues as indicated, we could be looking at one our best years.

ELECTIONS:

- A. President Peterson recognized and welcomed the new senators and stated that new senator orientation will occur thirty minutes prior to the September 4 meeting.
