

Training Announcement

. # $ # / # 2 ' ' & $ # . .

The Alabama Impaired Driving Enforcement Program will be conducting training on Recognizing

TRAINING DATES:
TRAINING TIMES:
TRAINING SITE:

This course is designed for law enforcement officers about recognizing impaired drivers. The course covers the signs and symptoms of impairment, the use of field sobriety tests, and the importance of proper documentation and reporting.

At the conclusion of this course, participants will be able to identify the signs and symptoms of impairment, administer field sobriety tests, and properly document and report impaired drivers.

Topics Include:

- x Recognizing signs and symptoms of impairment
- x Impairment clues presented by drivers
- x How to properly document and prepare effective cases for prosecution
- x Field sobriety tests
- x Importance of proper documentation and reporting

Audience:

This course is designed for law enforcement officers who are involved in impaired driving enforcement. It is a mandatory course for all officers who are involved in impaired driving enforcement.

Course Length:

The course is approximately 2 hours long.

Registration information is available at www.alabamadui@alea.gov

For more information, contact alabamadui@alea.gov

334-303-1000

This course is a mandatory requirement for all law enforcement officers involved in impaired driving enforcement. It is designed to provide officers with the knowledge and skills necessary to identify and document impaired drivers.