VII. What are the Committee's weaknesses?

- Response times on SAP appeals are often too slow to meet the needs of the students. A periodic, regularly scheduled meeting might help solve this problem. However, the number of appeals and the response time neededdequately serve the students do not always lend themselves to structured scheduling.
- 2. Trying to assemble a quorum of members in order to conduct business for regular meeting times is difficult. Faculty and staff members already struggle with overloaded schedules that adversely affect the scheduling process.

VIII. Comments.
